

Advertisement for the post of JRF

A post of JRF is being advertised for a CSIR funded project on assessing ecological impacts of industrialization and agriculture with reference to mercury and cranes. Candidates are asked to send their biodata with copies of relevant certificates to the below mentioned email address. Position description are as follows:

Position	JRF
Tenure	4 months, extendable to one year, or until project end, subject to satisfactory performance and continued funding.
Essential qualifications	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Either<ol style="list-style-type: none">(a) CSIR or UGC NET qualifiedOR(b) GATE qualified.2. Masters in environmental or earth sciences /studies, or a master's degree in a relevant programme belonging to chemical sciences, life sciences, or any other relevant or equivalent programme, with minimum 55% marks.
Desirables	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Previous experience with chemical analysis in lab along with full QA/QC; preferably of trace substances such as mercury and/or other heavy metals, or organic compounds.2. Previous experience in field work and/or sample collection
Remuneration	Rs. 31000 p.m. + applicable allowance, subject to a maximum monthly amount not equating to more than Rs. 4,00,000 per year.

Interested and eligible candidates can send their CVs and relevant certificates scan to ecgiith@gmail.com by 11:59 PM, 14 Oct 2021. Selection will be through interview in front of a panel, and will commence soon after.

Dr. Asif Qureshi

Principal Investigator of The Project